

Easter Project

After the Easter break we will be learning about growing and planting seeds. Your task over the holidays is make or paint some flowers. Here are some examples of what you can make

We will be reading this book

